

Competent Person in Fall Protection

TRAINING PROGRAM

from

BC WIRE ROPE
Fall Protection

Customized & ANSI Compliant Training

BC Wire Rope and Rigging now provides Customized Competent Person in Fall Protection Courses compliant to the Fall Protection Training Standards within ANSI Z359.2 2007, Z490.1 2001, OSHA 1926,1910 and EM 385.

ANSI Z359.2 2007 states that as part of a Managed Fall Protection Program, a Competent Person in Fall Protection shall be trained by either a Competent Person Trainer or Qualified Person Trainer.

Instruction by a Certified Competent Person in Fall Protection Trainer

Competent Person Trainers and Qualified Person Trainers must have the following:

- Documented experience, knowledge, training, and education equal to or greater than any category of person that they are training as it relates to fall protection
- Documented experience, knowledge, and skills in adult education

Trainer Bio

Thomas Ritter has over (10) ten Years of Safety and Fall Protection experience, 8.5 Years as a Territory, then Regional Manager for a leading Domestic Manufacturer of Fall Protection.

Thomas is certified as a Competent Trainer in Fall Protection under Andrew C. Sulowski, an OSHA 500 Outreach Trainer and proud Member of both ASSE (American Society of Safety Engineers) and ISFP (International Society for Fall Protection).

Prior to Safety and Fall Protection, Thomas brings over (12) twelve Years of combined Fire/ EMS experience.

Reserve Course Space Today:

1-800-669-5919

sales@bcwirerope.com

Anaheim Location Only

BC Wire Rope Competent Person in Fall Protection TRAINING PROGRAM

Fall Protection for the Construction Professional

BC Wire Rope and Rigging's Competent Person in Fall Protection Program is designed for the Construction Professional, usually in a Leadership Role (Superintendent, Safety Manager) responsible for hazard identification and mitigation for the at-risk Worker at Height.

BC Wire Rope and Rigging's Three (3) Day Competent Person in Fall Protection Course satisfies the Training requirements of OSHA 1926, 1910, ANSI Z359.2 2007, Z490.1 2001, Cal OSHA Title 8, & Army Corps of Engineers EM 385.

BC Wire's Competent Person in Fall Protection Course is not a Generalist, check the box Program. It also isn't an outdated power point simultaneously speaking to all Trades at various level of skill.

The BC Wire Competent Person in Fall Protection Course lesson plan is different in that it's Customized & Trade specific for each respective Organization.

Collaborative Curriculum

BC Wire Rope will collaborate to include a Companies' fall protection Policies and Procedures into the Course An Authorized Person Course Template (Power Point, Test/ Training Materials, Inspection Forms) will be provided for your Organization's ongoing use.

In addition to fall hazard identification/ mitigation, successful completion includes competencies in the following:

- Fall Protection program management, Company Policy & Procedures and record keeping
- Passive Fall Protection and Regulatory Compliance
- Hierarchy of Fall Protection
- Slips, trips, controlled access & decking zones
- Best Practice while working in Scissor or Boom Lift
- How to select & properly use a task-specific, Personal Fall Arrest System (PFAS)
- Identification and proper use of non-Certified Anchor Points
- Traveling restraint and work positioning systems
- Proper Installation and use of temporary horizontal lifelines (synthetic and cable)
- OSHA 1926, 1910 Guidelines and ANSI Z359.2 2007 Standards for a Managed Fall Protection Program Z490.1 2001 Environmental Health and Safety Training, EM 385 Army Corps of Engineers
- Ladder Safety
- Leading edge applications and extended free fall
- Proper documentation of Job Hazard Analysis Surveys/ Site Specific Safety Surveys
- Adult Learning methods and practical demonstration of the 'Authorized User of Fall Protection' lesson plan
- Competent Inspection and documentation of fall protection equipment
- Assisted and Unassisted Rescue in pre-planning and application, Orthostatic Intolerance and Post- Fall First Aid

Course Pricing

10-14 Attendees: $435 each or 15-30 Attendees: $385 ea.